

International Off-Site Activity Informed Consent Package – Chaperones

Anaheim 2017

Elements of Risk

Educational activity programs such as the Anaheim 2017 Trip involve certain elements of risk. Injuries may occur while participating in these activities. The following list includes, but is not limited to examples of the types of injury, which may result from participating in this excursion;

- Vehicle Accident
- Personal Injury
- Drowning
- Sunburn
- Airline Accident

The risk of sustaining these types of injuries result from the nature of the activity and can occur without fault of either the student, or the school board, its employees/agents or the facility where the activity is taking place. By choosing to take part in this activity, you are accepting the risk that you/your child may be injured. The chance of injury occurring can be reduced by carefully following instruction at all times while engaged in the activity.

If you choose to participate in the Anaheim 2017 Trip, you must understand that you bear the responsibility for any injury that may occur.

Christ the Redeemer Catholic Schools does not provide accidental death, disability or dismemberment or medical expense insurance on behalf of the student participating in this activity.

Student Guidelines for All Band Trips and Events

As a school sanctioned excursion, there are certain guidelines that students are expected to adhere to in order to ensure the excursion's success. Should you have any concerns about these expectations, please contact the appropriate individuals with respect to your school. For NDC, contact Mr. Windsor (403-603-0930, jwindsor@redeemer.ab.ca), or Mr. Dunphy, Principal (403-652-2231, pdunphy@redeemer.ab.ca).

Student Expectations

- Students are to strive to be positive, pleasant and polite at all times.
- Respect all authority at all times.
 - “Authority” includes all teachers, chaperones, clinicians, guest conductors, bus drivers, hotel managers and staff, lifeguards, store owners, restaurant servers, security guards, etc.
 - All chaperones are to have the final word in all situations. If there are any concerns, see Mr. Windsor.
- All meeting times, bed times, and other scheduled times are to be followed without exception.
- All planned events are mandatory (unless otherwise stated).
- The conduct and behavior, including dress code, are to be followed as expected in a regular school setting.
 - During all performances, uniform attire must be worn. Uniforms are white button-up collared shirts, black pants or black knee-length or longer skirts, black socks, black shoes and NDC Music Tie
 - There are to be no displays of affection.
 - There is to be no roughhousing, horsing around or violence at any time, whether in jest or not.
 - No foul, obscene or inappropriate language or materials are permitted on the excursion.
 - “Language” includes jokes, exclamations of surprise, vents of anger, et cetera.
 - “Materials” include music & lyrics, magazines, pictures, anything created or drawn by the student, et cetera.
 - Inappropriate materials will be confiscated.
 - No student is to be in the sleeping quarters of a member of the opposite gender at any time.
- Observance of special conduct and behavior are necessary at the following times;
 - Lights Out → During this time lights, televisions, games, computers, music, and other personal entertainment devices are to be turned off. Students are expected to be ready to sleep at this time to ensure they have enough sleep for the following day.
- There will be no guests, including relatives, permitted in any room in use by Christ the Redeemer Catholic Schools at any time.
- Students may not visit guests or the hotel rooms of other guests, including relatives, who are not part of Christ the Redeemer Catholic Schools at any time.
- Contraband, illegal substances and/or weapons are not permitted on the excursion (including knives and any form of alcohol or tobacco product).
 - Students found to be in possession of any of the above or having had possession of any of the above during the excursion will be dealt with severely (including being sent home and/or receiving a school suspension).
- During free time (as spent in malls or other public venues), students must stay with their assigned groups or partners. Students are never to venture on their own without their assigned group or partner. Students are also required to check in with Mr. Windsor at the given time intervals to ensure their safety.
- In the case of an emergency, get help immediately. Students are encouraged to carry cellular phones with them, and to contact a chaperone by cellular phone in the event of emergency. Students will be provided with that information at the onset of the excursion.
- Should a student be found not meeting these expectations, that student can expect escalating consequences. These consequences may escalate to involving school administration, potentially school suspension.
- Most importantly: Have Fun!
